

Basic Character Creation Procedure

- Roll 3d6 six times in order for the abilities STR, INT, WIS, CON, DEX, CHA.
- Pick race and class. Dwarves – Cleric, Fighter or Thief; Elves – Fighter, MU, or F/MU multi-class; Halfings – Fighter or Thief; Humans – any single class.
- You may swap 2 points in any non-prime requisite (PR – STR for Fighters, INT for MUs, WIS for Clerics, and DEX for Thieves) ability for 1 point in your PR (no ability may be lowered below 9).
- Choose an equipment pack for your class and roll 3d6 starting gold, buy extra equipment packs if desired.
- Start with 6 hit points. Add 1 if you are a Fighter or multi-class Elf, and 1 if your CON is 15 or higher. Subtract 1 if your CON is 6 or less.
- Note your experience bonus. If your prime requisite (is 15 or higher your bonus is +5%, add another 5% if your CHA is 15 or more, and another 5% for a WIS of 15 or more.

Attribute Bonuses/Penalties: 15 or higher = +1 or +600 coins, 6 or lower = -1 or -600 coins

STR: Fighters get a bonus to damage rolls (for melee and hand-hurled weapons). All classes get a penalty to damage rolls, adjustment to open door rolls, and coin (cn) carry weight.

INT: Targets get a penalty to their save versus spells cast by MUs.

WIS: Targets get a penalty to their save versus spells cast by Clerics.

CON: All classes get the adjustment to hit points per hit die.

DEX: All classes get the adjustment to missile attack rolls.

CHA: Note your maximum hirelings and loyalty adjustment.

CHA	3-4	5-6	7-8	9-12	13-15	16-17	18
Hirelings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Loyalty Adj.	-2	-2	-1	0	+1	+2	+2

Class Abilities

- At 1st level Clerics can turn away undead – target number or higher on 3d6: Skeleton=10, Zombie=13, Ghoul=15 Wight=17. They save at +2 vs. poison and paralysis.
- Fighters save at +2 vs. death and poison. If they kill an opponent in melee, they can attack any nearby foe in the same round.
- Starting MUs get a book of all first level spells. Choose one 1st level spell to memorize (charm person, detect magic, hold portal, light, protection from chaos, read languages, or sleep). Read magic is automatically memorized as an extra spell each day. MUs save at +2 vs. spells, staves and wands.
- Thieves who can sneak into position can backstab with +2 to-hit and 2 damage rolls. 1st level thieves can perform thief skills on a 1-2 in 6 and save at +2 vs. trap effects.

Racial Abilities

- Dwarves get +4 on saves vs. magic, take half damage from giant creatures, and are good at spotting traps, slanting passages, and construction while underground. They can speak Gnome, Goblin, Orc, and Kobold.
- Elves are good at spotting hidden and concealed doors, get +1 to-hit and damage against goblins, orcs, intelligent undead, and lycanthropes, and are immune to ghoul paralysis. They can speak Gnoll, Goblin, Orc, and Hobgoblin. Multi-class Elves can act as both a Fighter and MU, except that they can only cast spells while wearing magical or Elvish chain armor.
- Halfings take half damage from giant creatures, get +2 to-hit with missile weapons, and can move silently and hide when not in metal armor. They save at +4 vs. Magic and can speak Elvish.

Alignment - You can choose to follow Law, Chaos or Neutrality, except that Clerics cannot be Neutral.

Saving Throw – 14 for Fighters, multi-class Elves or Thieves, 15 for Clerics or MUs.

Armor Class – 10 (No armor), 12 (leather armor), 14 (chain), 16 (plate). Add 1 if you have a shield.

Base Hit Bonus (BHB): 1st level Fighters or Multi-class Elves have a +1 base hit bonus. All other classes start with a +0 BHB.

Spoken Languages – All PCs speak Common and Clerics speak their own alignment language. If your PC is human, roll 1d100 on the table below for each point of INT over 10.

1-10	Dwarf	31-40	Hobgoblin	61-70	Goblin	86-90	Bugbear	93	Align*	96	Treant	99	Nymph
11-20	Elf	41-50	Gnoll	71-80	Orc	91	Troll	94	Dragon	97	Dark Elf	100	Sidhe
21-30	Gnome	51-60	Kobold	81-85	Ogre	92	Centaur	95	Giant	98	Dryad

* Dice for one of Law, Chaos or Neutrality for non-Clerics. Clerics can choose Law or Chaos, whichever they do not already speak.

Encumbrance and Movement Rate

A large sack can carry 1200 coins, a backpack 600 coins, and a small sack 400 coins. You can carry a "normal" amount of armor, weapons and gear, plus 1200 coins (+/- STR bonus/penalty)- no more. Movement rate is determined as follows, based on your type of armor:
None/Leather: 12", Chain: 9", Plate: 6" (Subtract 3" at max coin weight).
